OTTAWA FEBRUARY 15, 2019 – OakWood Design & Build, Ottawa’s only Mike Holmes approved contractor, will be unveiling a comprehensive suite of new home improvement solutions at this year’s Ottawa Spring Home Show. Experienced Project Consultants and Architectural Designers will be on hand to provide expert counsel and advice on a broad range of new home and renovation projects while providing detailed information on OakWood’s brand new series of Model Homes.

“We’re extremely excited about this year’s Home Show,” says John Liptak, OakWood’s CEO and President. “This will be the first major venue where we will be previewing our new Model Homes and expanded Architectural Design services. Both are now being offered in response to customer feedback and market demand for greater flexibility and turnkey design and build solutions from a reliable, trusted contractor.”

OakWood has meticulously designed Model Homes that are inspired by award-winning designs from across North America while adding enhancements to the specifications, technology and design. OakWood’s Model Homes are fully customizable and designed around the company’s High Performance Design & Build solutions that use innovative energy-saving materials, smart technology, and eco-friendly materials.
